NEWS BY THE PAPERS.

Battles with the Indians.

FORT LARAMIE Sept. 25.—Information has been received today from General Conner's column, under Colonel Cole, to the 21st instant. It had been encamped near Fort Conner since the 9th. He lost 600 horses and 200 mules, which were frozen to death in one night.

On the 1st September he was attacked by a war party of Sioux, Cherokees and Arapahoes on Powder river, but they were repulsed with heavy loss; ours being only four killed and two wounded. On the 3d the Indians appeared in force, and were driven ten miles. Next day the engagement was renewed and lasted until noon, when the Indians were again defeated with great slaughter, their loss being from two hundred to six hundred killed and wounded.

The Indians then fled in every direction. Our troops were unable to pursue them on account of the poor condition of our stock. Our loss was one killed and ten officers and two men wounded. The Indians lost a large number of horses.

The Indians again attacked our troops on the 8th, but after a short and spirited engagement, were routed and beautifully cleaned out. Their force was estimated at 3,000. They lost many of their principal chiefs. Our total reported loss in three engagements is 7 killed, and 10 officers 2 men wounded.

Another battle was expected on Powder river, but the Indians suddenly disappeared. Colonel Cole will camp at Fort Conner until information is received from General Conner.

The Decline in Dry Goods.

The New York Commercial, noticing the decline in cotton goods, says:

"The more shrewd began to anticipate the prospective course of affairs by marking down prices; the example was quickly followed by others, and the movement gathered force as it progressed, until, at the close of the week, there was a universal reduction in the prices of cotton goods among the jobbers, ranging from 10 to 20 per cent.

"The manufacturers are confounded at the state of things, and know not whether to continue their enlarged production or to contract operations.

"Heavy brown sheetings have fallen 6 a 7 cts; fine bleach shirtings 10 a 13 cents, and prints 5 a 6 cents. Perhaps the extreme of decline has been touched."

Later from Europe--More arrests of Fenians--Excitement in Dublin--Cotton advanced, etc.

HALIFAX, Sept. 26.—The steamer Cuba, from Liverpool on the 19th instant, arrived here this afternoon.

The Irish police continue to make arrests of the Fenians, and considerable excitement exists in Dublin. Arrests are being made in other parts of Ireland.

The Latest, via Queenstown.

Liverpool, Saturday evening.—It is stated that Donald McKay, the well known American shipbuilder, is in close communication with the Admiralty on the subject of torpedoes, which are to be laid down in the channels to English harbors in case of a war.

Mr. Hurley, in addressing his constituents at Oxfordshire, paid a high tribute to the qualities manifested by both North and South in the late war, and contrasted their character most favorably with that of Austria and Prussia in the affair of the Duchies.

Late advices from Marseilles report much alarm there, many of the inhabitants fleeing on account of the progress of the cholera.

The Times' American correspondent represents that the Fenians in America are collecting large funds and sending money to Ireland, and spending money in America in purchasing arms, etc.

The Dublin Express of this morning says that, after the arrests at the Irish police office last night, orders were issued to all police stations and military barracks for forces to be held ready in case of any attempt to rescue the prisoners by the populace. A police constable was also stationed in each telegraph office for the purpose of stopping any message relating to Fenianism.

The latest intelligence says that the Irish police still continue to arrest the Fenians, and the number of prisoners is very large. Among others arrested is a person said to be a Captain in the American army, in whose possession documents and a uniform was found. On Saturday afternoon the prisoners, escorted by mounted police, were taken to the Police Court to undergo an examination. The result had not transpired—The mob heartily cheered the prisoners, but made no attempt to rescue them.

The Privy Council are said to be sitting to determine what course the authorities should take in the prosecution and sentence of the arrested parties.

The correspondent of the London Times at Biarritz mentions the discovery of a plot against the Emperor, either on the way to San Sebastian or on the return to Bayonne, including a brother or cousin or Orleanist. Precautionary measures were taken, and the Queen of Spain insisted on accompanying the Emperor and Empress to the railroad station, notwithstanding it was night, in order that she might share any risk run by her guest.

THE FAMILY OF GENERAL STERLING PRICE.—Mrs. Sterling Price, with her daughter and two sons, arrived at St Louis from Texas on Friday last. She was accompanied by General Edwin W. Price, who left Brooklyn, New York, about two months ago, and went to Texas after the family. Mrs. Price is not aware of the exact whereabouts of General Sterling Price and her third son, who accompanied his father into Mexico. When last heard from they were in the city of Mexico.

Columbia.

From a private letter we learn that business is increasing in the beautiful capitol of our sister State. A good deal of cotton and other country produce is coming in in wagons. Like the Phœnix, from her ashes we trust she will soon spring up more lovely and attractive than ever.—Char. Times.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Editor.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1865.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For six months, - - - - - $5,00
For one month - - - - - 1,00
" two months - - - - - 2,00

Our terms are invariably in advance. The scarcity of money however, obliges us to say to our friends, that responsible and prompt persons who desire the Sentinel need not delay sending us their names at once, who can send us the Cash in a short time. The money may be sent us by the Rail Road Conductors or the Express Company.

The Condition of the People.

While we have expressed our opinion very freely in opposition to repudiation, we have not been unmindful of the hard pressed condition of our people, and the absolute necessity there is for sound and wise legislation to preserve those who are indebted largely, from certain and irremediable ruin. The principle of repudiation is essentially dishonest—is a crime against all sound law both human and divine. It is an offence to humanity—and leads to other evils greater, if possible, in turpitude and more ruinous to society.— Under no circumstances can we consent to legitimising fraud, deception and dishonesty.

The condition of our people however, demands relief. Much is said about the State debt, and the impropriety of giving even a tacit recognition of the revolution. It is very evident that the non[illegible] payment or the repudiation of the State debt [illegible] disqualify thousands to pay any other de[illegible] ill Thousands have no other means scarc[illegible] ot.— them but new State bonds. Many [illegible] ely left orphans will be placed beyond the [illegible] idows and if that debt is repudiated. The lo[illegible] hope of relief in Confederate securities led gu[illegible] s of confidence to invest in State bonds as th[illegible] adians and agents, which the country afforde[illegible] e very best security and many must fall into [illegible]. Cut off this prop, which they cannot rec[illegible] condition of poverty from the State can be m[illegible] over. Besides, the debt due charging it, be[illegible] ade easier to the people in dis[illegible] than any oth[illegible] ause paid by taxation in littles ford, would [illegible] r, and the relief which it would af[illegible] other d[illegible] go very far to enable them to discharge situ[illegible] ebts which many regard of superior mag[illegible] e.

We suggested some time ago, that the only relief the people should seek as well as the State, is that which every honest debtor seeks from his creditors. Neither the State debt, nor the County debts, nor the individual indebtedness of the people, can be paid according to the face of the debt. Excepting the debts incurred before the war, no creditor, either the State or individuals, have received full consideration. The state of the currency prevented this, and it is manifestly unjust for any one to demand payment according to the face of the debt, if it was contracted in Confederate times.

But reduce all the indebtedness both of the State, the Counties and the individual debt to a gold standard, and even then the ability of the country is insufficient to discharge them. The sweeping away at one fell swoop the property which the people supposed they held in the negroes, has placed it entirely beyond the power of the people to sustain the State and Federal governments, and fully meet their obligations.— Hence it becomes necessary for the wisest heads of the nation, and especially those of the South, to devise some prompt and efficient plan by which the honor and fidelity of the people and of the States may be maintained, and the people saved from abject ruin. It has been suggested that a wisely constructed bankrupt law is the remedy. We are inclined to favor that opinion.

Artificial Limbs.

We have seldom been more highly gratified than we were on yesterday. Mr. Hildrith, agent for the "Jewett Patent Leg Company" of Washington City, called upon us to exhibit the artificial leg manufactured by that Company. We unhesitatingly declare we have never seen its equal. Nothing short of the real human leg, it appears to us, can be superior to it. Every joint and movement appears to be supplied which is really necessary for locomotion, sitting down or kneeling. It would be difficult we judge to detect the artificial leg when covered with a boot and pants. The mechanism is very perfect and special regard is paid to durabiliry as well as to symmetry. We insist upon it that the company shall establish a branch of their business in this city. There are thousands of our citizens who have lost their limbs, who have an immediate use for this excellent substitute prepared by this company. North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia would give such an establishment such an amount of patronage at once, as would amply satisfy the company.

Our Exchanges.

The Wilmington Journal by the old proprietors, Messrs. Fulton and Price, was resumed on yesterday. Its old friends will be glad to renew their acquaintance.

Messrs. Barry and Bernard will commence the publication of the Wilmington Dispatch on the 2d of October.

Our cotemporaries will pardon our inability at present to insert their prospectuses—the crowded state of our columns will satisfy them it is from no indisposition to do so. We wish them every success.

The Petersburg Index is one of our most reliable exchanges. We are glad to see its enlargement, which indicates prosperity.

Justices of the Peace.

It was the design of the fathers of the State Constitution that the magistracy of the country, like the grand jurors of our courts, should be the conservators and guardians of the public morals. In this view the office of the magistrate is a very important one, and has a significance and an elevation which unfortunately does not attach to the office now. They of course intended, that the office should be filled by our best citizens, and that those whose duty it is to appoint the magistracy, should always select them purely for their own merits. Partizan politics has prevented this design, and hence for many years our legislators in selecting men to fill it, have looked more to their own than to the public good. Every one in his sober senses will admit, that no one should be appointed to that high position, from merely political considerations. The office should always stand upon high moral grounds, and the magistracy, the executors of the law, the conservators of the public peace and the guardians of the public morals, should be always selected from the best men of the country.

A man who consents to serve in that high capacity, should guard against every inducement which tends to lower the dignity of the office or to compromise the public morals. He who enforces the law which says "Thou shall not steal," be careful that the accused can never t[illegible] must him with the cutting interrogato[illegible] urn upon steal—art thou a breaker of [illegible], "Dost thou [illegible] the law?"

In view therefore of [illegible] office and the ab[illegible] the, importance of the present [illegible] solute necessity of a change in well as t[illegible] mode of appointing magistrates, as ed, [illegible] ne large number allowed to be appointed, we urge upon the approaching Convention some salutary change in these respects. What changes should be effected we are not fully prepared to suggest, but the superior wisdom of the Convention will readily see the necessity for a change, and will suggest the best practicable mode of securing so important an object as the one we seek.

Monuments for the Dead.

We are glad that Messrs. King, Whitelaw & Co. have determined to open business in this City.— They are practical and thorough workmen, and we have no doubt will give ample satisfaction to the public. See their advertisement in to-days issue.

To the People of Craven County.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—It is difficult for me to find words to express my sense of your kindness in electing me to represent you in the Convention. It is a mark of confidence, which, under the circumstances, is especially grateful to my heart, and calls up feelings of devotion to your wishes and interests, which, I trust, I shall have the strength to fulfill.

The elements of society are in extreme disorder. The consequences are momentous, and the responsibilities, therefore, of the Convention, are of the profoundest character, reaching far above and beyond ordinary questions in politics.

Seeking light from all proper quarters, in humble dependence upon the blessing of God, I shall strive with all my might to aid in conducting the deliberations of the Convention to a speedy, safe and honorable close.

My views lead me to suppose we can accomplish all that is needful to restore the State to the Federal Union in a few days. Most of the questions which now disturb us, may be well left to the future, when we shall be in a better frame of mind to discuss and settle them.

I hope to meet you soon (as soon as the Convention shall adjourn) and have free intercourse upon subjects connected with its action as well as other matters of interest.

I have the pleasure to state that all obstacles will be removed to my taking my seat, as I am well assured.

Your friend and servant,
M E. MANLY.

We copy the above excellent card from the Newbern Times. The most fastidious Union man will find the Judge all right. The people of Craven are sensible in the selection of two such delegates as Judge Manly and C. C. Clark.

From South Carolina--Proclamation of Governor Perry.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The steamer Alhambra brings Charleston dates to the 23d inst.— Gov. Perry has issued a proclamation ordering the commanders of sub-districts and all officers serving within the military district of Charleston to assist in organizing the militia as a home police, to act under the orders of the district and sub-district commanders of United States troops, for the preservation of order, and to arrest all lawless characters. Each member of the militia force is required to take the oath of allegiance to the United States, and shall bear a good character.

The South Carolina Convention has refused to allow negroes to form a part of the basis of representation.

Washington News.

Secretary Harlan has gone to Iowa to look after republicanism in the pending State election.

The number of men now in garrison about the District of Columbia do not number over two thousand five hundred men.

The large number of forts, batteries and stockades over the Eastern Branch, and on both sides of the Potomac river, which have been from time to time abandoned, will be turned over to the owners of the land in a few days, and the lumber, timber and abattis around them sold.

The colored citizens of the District are making large preparations to receive the First District of Columbia colored regiment, which will arrive here on Saturday from Texas. By direction of the Secretary of War, General Rucker is to put a suitable building at the disposal of the reception committee, in which to entertain them. Sun.

Serious Accident.

The accommodation train on its way to Charlotte to-day, while turning a curve near Jamestown Station, run against a woman by name Walker, [a deaf mute] and precipitated her down the embankment, breaking her leg and otherwise injuring her. She is not expected to survive She was taken to High Point, where her friends reside. The engineer blew the whistle before turning the curve, but the poor woman was deaf.—Char. Times.

Hon. A. H. Stephens.

The official position which Mr. Stephens held in the late Confederacy, can only account for his long and close confinement in Fort Lafayette. His political antecedents as well as his extreme feeble constitution, it would seem, would have secured him Executive clemency at an early day. We are glad to see a strong Northern movement in favor of his early pardon, and we are hopeful that the President will grant it. The Louisville Journal thus urges his release:

Mr. A. H. Stephens, ex Vice-President of the ex-Confederacy, upon being offered his choice whether to remain in Fort Lafayette and take his chance of pardon, or leave the country never to return, has, it is said, chosen the former.— There may be reasons that we are not aware of for the course pursued by the Government toward that distinguished man, but his case seems to be a peculiarly hard one. When so many of the most prominent of the actors in the late re[illegible] bellion are pardoned and so many paroled [illegible] of them having led armies against th[illegible], some armies, it appears difficult to un[illegible] Federal the eminent Georgian, he wh[illegible] erstand why estly and at so much pol[illegible] struggled so earnestly to himself against s[illegible] itical and personal peril doubt more mo[illegible] ecession, and who was no council tha[illegible] erate and less unpatriotic in ate Go[illegible] any other member of the Confederate [illegible] ernment, exposing himself thereby to the [illegible] unciation and the obloquy of almost the entire Southern press, is kept in prison, having the privilege of escaping from it only by becoming an exile from his country till death.

While we were in Richmond last winter, there was a general report one morning of the death of President Davis, and it was believed. The question of the successorship of course excited both interest and anxiety. By the Confederate Constitution, as by ours, the Vice President would succeed the President in case of the death of the latter, but there was a declaration of prominent rebels that Stephens must resign or be assassinated—that he would not be permitted to fill the Presidential chair. How strange that one so obnoxious to the master spirits of the rebellion for his opposition to their views and purposes, should be treated with apparent harshness by our authorities.

We most sincerely hope that Alexander H. Stephens will soon be permitted to go free, and we fully believe that he will be. President Johnson means to be a just President and to do what is best, and we do not think he can doubt that the influence of Mr. Stephens in Georgia would at this time be great and salutary.

Moon Struck.

The man alluded to in the following by the Petersburg Index, must be a nondescript or one of those shrewd Yankees who can bring blood out of a turnip. Who but he could expect to make money out of the dead niggers:

BUYING NEGROES.—This head to an article will doubtless cause surprise to such of our readers as are not aware, that a gentleman in this city, heretofore supposed to be in his sane mind, is engaged in a speculation, based upon the probability of payment being made by the United States Government for negroes emancipated by the collapse of the Confederacy.

He offers $10 in gold for right of property in each negro, and has, we learn, made some purchases, and paid the money.

The holders in England of "Cotton Bonds," the proprietors of shares in the "Atlantic Cable Company," the heirs to the Jennings' estate, or the creditors of the younger Ketchum, may look for some ultimate return of their money to its rightful owners, but when or how this speculative trader expects to realize profit or actual expenses, is a question which must be answered by the Freedmen's Bureau.

We advise our country friends and the public generally to base no hopes on this ten dollar foundation. Meanwhile, if the buyer will give us a call, we'll trade with him for a few we used to own.

Letter from General Robert E. Lee.

We make no apology says the Petersburg Index for introducing to our readers the following short extract from a private letter we have received from Gen. Lee. These words of wise counsel from the best beloved man in these Southern States, are common property, and they receive conclusive force from the noble example he has set of faith in his own views and obedience to his own convictions of duty. As he never ordered any man to go where he feared to go himself, so he never advises any course that he is not fully prepared to follow. We feel that we give expression to a wish as wide as the Union, in hoping that he may live long enough to see his cheerful prophecy abundantly accomplished in the full restoration of our land in every part, to even more than her former prosperity and freedom:

"It should be the object of all to avoid controversy, to allay passion, give free scope to reason and every kindly feeling By doing this, and encouraging our citizens to engage in the duties of life with all their heart and mind, with a determination not to be turned aside by thoughts of the past or fears of the future, our country will not only be restored in material prosperity, but will be advanced in science, in virtue and in religion.

"Wishing you every success,
I am most truly yours,
"R. E. LEE."

From Florida.

Governor Marvin, of Florida, delivered a speech at Quincy, Florida, on the 5th instant, in which he said that the future Constitution of Florida must guarantee freedom alike to all. "As citizens, before the law, the freedmen must be in all respects our equals. I do not mean that as a race they are or can be made, during many generations, if ever, the equals personally of the Caucasion race, or can enjoy the same political or social position, but that is no reason why Constitution or law should discriminate against them. The right of suffrage does not necessarily follow, for that is not a natural but a political right, which may be granted or withheld, as sound policy may dictate. * * * Futhermore, the Constitution must declare that persons of color, shall be admitted as witnesses in all our courts of civil jurisprudence. The law, in this respect, must know no distinction of color."

HIGH PRICES FOR TOBACCO.—Messrs. Todd, Pugh & Co. obtained on yesterday, $90 per cwt. for one hhd. of tobacco, grown by Mr. E. Dalby, of Granville county, N. C. It was disposed of to a Petersburg manufacturer. This is the highest figure we have known paid for tobacco in any market since Peace brought us a new currency.—Petersburg Index.

Southern Churches.

A great number of our readers will peruse with unaffected delight the dispatch which appears in another column, announcing that the President of the United States has ordered that such churches in the South as have been taken from their rightful owners, during the war, shall be restored to them without delay. This is a good, an exceedingly good order, and reflects credit upon the head and heart of President Johnson. Throughout the South, as the Federal armies progressed, the churches were appropriated, sometimes by military order, but more frequently by enthusiastic preachers, following in the wake of the army, whose zeal and bigotry far surpassed their virtues of charity and benevolence, as inculcated in Holy Writ. Of course there were noble exceptions to the general practice, but this fact did not materially lessen the evil so loudly and bitterly complained of. The churches were seized and appropriated, and the congregations owning them were compelled, in numerous instances, to either abstain from attending divine service altogether, or to listen to ministers they did not like, and to many of whose opinions they decidedly demurred In this respect probably the churches of New Orleans suffered more than those of any other Southern city; and the feelings engendered thereby were not at all calculated to advance the cause of the Christian religion For these reasons, not to even allude to many others that could be easily educed, we regard the order referred to as not only just, wise and proper in an eminent degree, because it restores to the legal owners the control of property honestly belonging to them, but because it tends to the advancement of true religion by removing a source of discord and dissatisfaction which could not have been done any other way. Our churches will hereafter be controlled by those who have an indisputable right in the premises, and our people will be enabled to listin to ministers of the Gospel of their own chooring.

ELECTION NEWS.—The result of the late election in the various counties come in slowly.— Messrs. Donnell and Warren are elected in Beaufort county, and Mr. J. T. Johnson in Washington county. We have not heard from Pitt county yet, notwithstanding it is an adjoining county, a strong argument in favor of establishing rail communications in this country.

We understand they had some free sparring at Plymouth and other points in Washington county on election day. A confed captain by the name of Lawrence was put upon the rostrum at Plymouth, who, discoursed on the past, present and future in such a way as to displease some of the Union soldiers who served in the 1st North Carolina Federal Volunteers, and with a few well-directed shots they brought the orator to a level with the rest of the crowd but with his bones all whole.

At Lee's Mills several shots were fired, but nobody was hurt on either side.—Newbern Times.

The Constitutional Union.

The Constitutional Union, which since its establishment, two and a half years since, has been a firm, persistent, and sincere advocate of a perpetuity of the Union under the Constitution unimpaired, and a thorough devotee to the cause of the Democratic party, has been designated by the President as one of the papers to publish all Government advertisements under the law.

A lively fight is looked for at the election of Clerk of the next Congress. George Francis Train is already in the ring against Mr. McPherson, present incumbent. Others are marshalling their forces.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

North Carolina Colored Convention.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 29th, 1865.

The Colored Convention met to-day at 9 o'clock in the African Church, according to previous appointment.

On motion, John Good of Craven, was called to the chair, John Randolph of Craven was appointed Secretary, and Geo. W. Price of Craven assistant secretary.

On motion, a committee on credentials was appointed.

There was a large number of persons present from different parts of the State, who were not delegates, but who sympathized with the objects of the Convention.

The number of delegates present was supposed to be respectable.

On motion, the following delegates were appointed a committee on permanent organization: J. W. Hood, chairman, Chas. H. Bell, Mingo Croom, Frank Gibble, John Roberts, W. J. Williams, —— Gibbs, and —— Cawthorn.

After the announcement of the committee, objections were urged to the selection of so many from one County. W. J. Williams of Wake thought, that all the Counties should be equally represented in the committee on organization. J. W. Hood of Craven, asked to be excused from serving upon the committee. His request was not granted. Frank Williams from Pitt, also objected to the composition of the committee because Pitt had been overlooked. The delegate from Anson, —— Jones, was of opinion that Anson was to be ignored altogether. The objectors were assured that the claims of all the Counties should be duly respected. Whereupon on motion, in order to give the committee on organization time to report, the Convention adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock, P. M.

2 O'CLOCK, P. M.

The Convention met according to adjournment.

A motion to admit none but regular delegates to take part in the Convention, was laid on the table.

James Harris of Wake, moved that the Convention be constituted a mass Convention, and on motion it was

Resolved, That this body be constituted a mass Convention, and that all delegates duly appointed be allowed to represent their constituents.

The committee on permanent organization reported as follows:

J. W. Hood, President.
J. P. Sampson, Vice President.
J. Randolph, Secretary.
Wm. Cawthorn, Assistant Secretary.
J. R. Caswell, Treasurer.
G. A. Rice, Chaplain.

On the motion, to adopt the report, A. H. Galloway moved that —— Shanks, of Charlotte, be substituted for Vice President, in place of J. P. Sampson, which was adopted. [A good move, as J. P. Sampson is a citizen of Ohio, and not properly a delegate to represent a North Carolina constituency.]

W. J. Williams, of Wake, moved that Alex. Bass, be made Chaplain in place of G. A. Rue, which was adopted.

On motion, the number of Vice Presidents was increased to seven. [Exactly the negro all over the world—death for position.]

On motion, J. H. Harris of Wake, was made 2nd Vice President; J. P. Sampson, of Ohio, 3d; Isham Sweat of Fayetteville, 4th; Wm. Smith of Wilmington, 5th; Stewart Ellison of Wake, 6th; Sergt. Littleton, 1st N. C. Heavy Artillery, 7th.

J. P. Sampson and G. A. Rue were appointed a committee to escort the President to the Chair, who addressed the Convention briefly. He stated that the objects of the Convention were to secure to the colored people of North Carolina, first, a right to testify in Courts of Justice, secondly, a seat in the jury box, and thirdly, a right at the ballot box. These rights he said the blacks ought to have, these they will contend for, and these by the help of God we will have. [We advertise our readers, that this man Hood is from Connecticut and not a North Carolinian.]

On motion, two marshalls were appointed to preserve order.

J. H. Harris moved that Gov. Holden and Col. Whittlesy be invited to address the Convention.

On motion, the same request was made of the Commander of this Department, Gen. Ruger.

On motion, a committee was appointed to prepare business for the Convention, and J. P. Sampson, J. H. Harris, Isham Sweat, —— Roberts, —— Patcham, —— Nixon, W. H. Smith and Sergt. Foster were appointed.

The committee on rules made their report.

After some discussion on sundry subjects, the Convention adjourned until to-morrow.

The City is quite full of colored persons in attendance upon the colored convention. We notice a number in uniform,—soldiers we presume, on furlough.

We were pleased to recieve a call on yesterday from our old friend, James Rumley Esq., of Carteret, the member elect to the Convention from that County. Mr. Rumley will be found to be one of the best working members of that body. He is a man of few words, but possesses a clear head and a sound heart.

On Sunday last, about $2,000 was contributed in the Catholic churches of Baltimore in aid of the suffering poor of the South. In the Church of the Immaculate Conception $100 was collected; in St. Patrick's Church, $600; St. Alphonsus's, $450, and St. Matthew's $500.

Gen Thomas has ordered the freedmen in Vicksburg to be assessed for the support of the colored schools.

The New York Express thus photographed the Radicals: "If Radicalism could only learn to cook its own eggs, boil its own pot, mend its own clothes, and let other people's pots, and eggs, and clothes alone, we could live in a peaceful, happy and contented country, But the real, live Radical, will boil in everybody's pots, cook everybody's eggs, pots and clothes, however, as his pay for so doing."

NORTH CAROLINA
MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT OF THE CONdition of the N. C Mutual Life Insurance Company will show that after all the vicissitudes of the war the Company is still strong, and merits the continuance of the patronage heretofore so generously bestowed.

ASSETS.

Premium notes liable to assessment,	$129,198
Bonds of solvent individuals,	23,004
	$152,202

LIABILITIES.

Losses allowed up to Jan. 1, 1865,	35,249
Excess of assets over liabilities,	$116,953

To meet the above liabilities, the Directors have ordered the collection of the individual bonds, and an assessment of 20 per cent. on the premium notes, which should yield

Bonds,	$23,004
Assessment,	25 839
	$48 843
Losses,	35,249
An excess of	$13,694

Sufficient to cover all deficiencies.

If the Company shall be patronized by the public as before the war, there will be the annual profits in cash and premium notes which may be added to the assets now in hand, for the payment of liabilities.

Nearly all the above liabilities would have been extinguished but for the refusal of claimants to receive the currency in circulation at the time of the losses. They can not reasonably complain of some delay. It will be remembered that the premium notes are the accumulations of notes given by insurers for one-half their annual premiums, which the Company had the right to require to be paid in cash. On the face of the note the insurer promises to pay whenever requested by the Directors, and all payments on assessments will be so much added to the sum insured, by diminishing to that amount, the premium note to be deducted in case of loss. Many insurers pay the whole premium in cash as a matter of choice. It is believed that the losses may be paid by the first instalment of ten per cent added to the contemplated profits; but it is the firm intention of the Directors to meet all their liabilities as promptly as the condition of the country will permit, even if to do so, it may be necessary to order the collection of all the premium notes.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 30 1865.

Negro Troops.

The New York Journal of Commerce has not a very exalted opinion of negro soldiers, or negro regiments. In reply to a Tribune article stating that this government, "found refuge against white traitors behind 200,000 black bayonets," the Journal of Commerce says:

"The only men who 'found refuge' behind the armed negro were the ultra abolitionists, and they found refuge, not from the rebels at the South, but from the draft at the North. Massachusetts hunted the nation through to find negroes to fill up her quota and save her citizens from fulfilling the Governor's promise to throng the roads with volunteers. Two weeks ago there was a negro regiment discharged in Boston. We came on in the train that afternoon to New York, and we are able to state on our personal observation that a very large part of the men composing the regiment came on to this city and State to find their homes. This was the only kind of taking refuge behind the negro that we or the people of this country know anything about.

The simple, unvarnished truth is, that the negro soldiers have been of no manner of use to us in this war. Where ten thousand of them have been used to fulfil a purpose, one thousand or one hundred white soldiers would have been of more value by far. We have conversed with scores of returned officers and soldiers, men of no political aspirations, who have seen the negro regiments under all conditions, and their testimony is unanimous that the colored troops were nowhere worth their salt. This is the uniform statement of every soldier whom we have seen, who is not a political candidate for some office. It is the notorious verdict of all the most eminent officers of the army.

As a matter of fact, the stories which were published for political effect about the bravery of these troops are known to be fabrications — We have before this alluded to the celebrated advance of the negroes at Fort Wagner, which was represented in such brilliant colors, the poor fellows falling by hundreds on the parapet and under the works of the fort. The fact is now well known that they did not advance within some hundred yards of the fort, and their conduct was simply ludicrous under the first fire they received. This is but a specimen of the "historical verities" which political writers manufacture in times of excitement. It is not to be doubted that the organization of negro regiments has cost the nation many millions of dollars, which were thrown away to gratify an ardent partianship, or to save those who advocated it from the draft, and resulted in no adequate return whatever."

Is it Allowable for Ex-Confederates to Gain a Livelihood!

The Springfield (Massachusetts) Republican, an able Republican paper, on this subject, says:

"If one of this class is appointed to any office or allowed to be a candidate for any local position in the South, there is a hue and cry raised about putting rebels in power. The dissatisfied do not seem to recognize any validity in the executive amnesty and pardon, or, at least, fail to comprehend that they involve full absolution. So if a man formerly prominent as a rebel is placed in any position by the Southern people, it is quoted against them as evidence of their persistence in rebellion. General Joe Johnson was recently a candidate for the presidency of the Danville railroad in Virginia, and a majority of stockholders voted for him, but Governor Pierpont got the impression in some way that his election would give offence at Washington, and so intimated to the stockholders, and the vote of the State for its stock was then given to Buford, the other candidate, thus electing him. Perhaps Buford is the best man for the position, but General Johnston is one of the most eminent civil engineers in the country, and the stockholders voted for him because they thought he would promote the interests of the company. Now, if General Johnston is to be allowed to live, and to support himself, it is impossible to give any good reasons for excluding him from the profession which he is best fitted. We neither get indemnity for the past, nor security for the future, by excluding such men from the business pursuits for which they are qualified. Indeed, the employment of those who were lately rebel commanders, in peaceful pursuits, thus giving them a personal interest in the tranquility of the country, will manifestly prove an element in our future security. General Johnston has since been elected President of one of the railroads in Alabama, and it is not treasonable to hope that he will manage it well, and make money for himself and the company. There has been a great deal of stupid rhetoric expended on the fact that General Lee has been made President of Washington College in Virginia, and the trustees have been denounced.

From Washington.

A telegram from Washington, dated September 26, says:

The crowd of pardon-seekers at the President's reception yesterday was not so large as on some days last week. This is probably caused by the fact that the President has suspended the issue of pardon requisitions from the Attorney General's office until those already prepared have been acted on.

It is believed there will be no change in the course now pursued in granting amnesty pardons, and that it will be continued, as large numbers of pardon blanks have been ordered to be printed, and a fac simile of the signature of the President has been made, which will be used in affixing his name to these documents, to save labor and expedite their completion. Thus far, however, all the pardons issued have been signed by the President's own hand.

On Saturday the President granted about one hundred and twenty-five pardons, principally to parties residing in Virginia and Georgia. The entire clerical force of the Executive Mansion is now engaged in making out the warrants of those directed by the President to be pardoned.

The Rev. Mr. Spurgeon, of the Baptist Church, declares that Romanism is gaining immensely in England, and that London is now covered with a net-work of monks, and priests, and Sisters of Mercy, and the conversions made are not by ones or twos, but by scores, till England is being regarded as the most hopeful spot for Romish missionary enterprise in the world.

The stores are filled with all kinds of goods and every day the Express, and the Rail Road bring new lots of goods to our merchants. The demand for stores is great and rents are very high.—Salisbury Banner.

VEGETABLE HAIR INVIGORATOR,

IS LIKED BY ALL IN PREFERENCE TO ANY in market for ten reasons:

1. Because it invariably turns gray hair to its original color in the short space of four weeks.
2. Because it is clean and nice, and will not stain the skin.
3. Because it removes all Dandruff and Scurf, and is as harmless as water.
4. Because thousands are using it, and every body should.
5. Because it is peculiarly adapted to all classes, old and young.
6. Because it is purely vegetable—not a dye.
7. Because it kills hair eaters, and makes the hair luxuriant and soft.
8. Because it cures all humors and diseases of the scalp.
9. Because it arrests and prevents the hair from falling.
10. Because it is no humbug, but an honest article, as multitudes can testify; and if it don't prove as recommended, the money will be refunded.
